Typhoid Pever and What to do to Prevent it. (From Rural Notes in Providence Journal.)

Line upon line is the necessity. The recent closing of the Seminary at East Greenwich, in consequence of the prevalence and fatality of the typhoid fever, brings up again for discussion and warning the subject of defective drainage. It ing the subject of defective drainage. It is understood that typhold fever is now largely provalent in New England. And it must not be forgotten that very many persons are affected who do not wholly succumb to the disease. The last season has been an unusual one. The excess of heat and moisture in combination has induced a rapid and symbols are recent. nest and moisture in combination has induced a rapid and exhuberant growth of vegetation; this is now largely in a decaying condition; the drains, out-houses and yards of our dwellings are exhaling to a greater or less extent, mephitic gasses. Where care has been taken during the summer, of course, there is only the natural and inevitable danger; but in cases where cellars, drains and other places have been neglected, there is a grave lisbility which ought at once to be avoided, in a few library in soft and the course of the cour billty which ought at once to be avoided, in so far as is possible. And it is possible to do a great deal toward it, and toward the preservation of health. It should be a rule as unalterable as the laws of the Medes and Persians, that no offensive smell should go uncorrected for a day, anywhere about the premises; but this is not all. It is very probable that at East Greenwich there was no percentible efflurium in that ellert of the ceptible effluvium in that ell part of the building where the miasma must have been most concentrated and deadly. It is necessary, therefore, to use precautions dictated by science, even when the senses do not give any warning. In new countries the fever and ague is the result of a missmatic influence which does not make diself apparent to the sense of smell; our typhoid fevers are the consequence of a missma which sometimes does, and often missma which sometimes does, and often does not reveal itself to the physical of the list dealers. The balance of the list dealers have reveal itself to the physical of the list dealers. dictated by science, even when the senses or does not, reveal itself to the physical organs. This much we know; decaying animal and vegetable matter are each provocatives of fever; the use of disinfect-ants, as lime, plaster, dry earth, a solution of copperss, or preparations of car-bolic acib will tend to, if not wholly, eradicate the miasma, which is ulways so deleterious and in many cases so tatal. In a word, everywhere should be enforced— cleanliness. And that too, this year ca-pecially, in a sense not always understool.

secially, in a sense not always understood or be it known that our learned friends wet and decaying leaves, the presence of low, moist soit, the stsgnant water from the drains, are each and all dangerous to Close observers will have noticed this fall, on the north side of the house, and in shady positions, a green mould, which is not seen in ordinary seasons. This is evidence of a condition of the atmosphere unlaworable in itself to health, and we it as his opinion that "the provision of eight hours shall constitute a day's been been to tendency whatever to shall be paid at a lower or higher rate hand at a of ten hours' labor, or at the me rate." President Grant settled this session authoritatively, by issuing, on leafth to May, 1869, the following promation:

"Whereas the act of Congress, approval alore 25th, 1868, constituted on and for that date eight hours a day's work all laborers, workmen and mechanics amboved by or on behalf of the government."

"Whereas the act of Congress, approval and the matter of the most vital interest. DEPOSITORS SECURED BY IN Life Policies are now generally conceded to be among the most certain and desirable of investments. This Company, managed on principles of sirtet conomy, offers the lowest rates of premiums, consistent with eaferty, and lower, we believe, than any other Company doing business in the State. It is success is an established fact. All reserve from premiums, as a security to the policy holders, additional to the capital stock, is invested by the Local Boards, within that locality from which it is devived.

Being convinced by their knowledge of the integrity and prudence of the gentlemen who compose its Directory, and by a thorough examination of its plan of organization, that it is in every respect a reliable dompany, the subscribed citizens of wheeling, who have themselves subtained in the commending the enterprise to the favorable consideration of the people of the State:
